

1. Show why dividing fractions is the same thing as multiplying by the reciprocal of the denominator.

2. Explain what we are really doing when we do the long multiplication process we learned from school. E.g. Why do we add at the end, why add zeros when we move places, etc.